

a first-order fit to a sloshing cup is biased by $2\zeta/\omega_n$; stiffening divides that by ρ same bias law, now for a complex-pole slosh

